A characterization of finite solvable groups in terms of the Frame

Francesco Fumagalli

Abstract

The Frame of a finite group is the poset of conjugacy classes of its proper subgroups. I will show that the subposet consisting of all the possible meets between coatoms of the Frame is a graded lattice satisfying a particular condition if and only if the finite group is solvable.

Università di Bologna

`fumagal@math.unifi.it`