

A subgroup complex for a finite group

John Maginnis

ABSTRACT

A collection of p -subgroups of a finite group, those whose centers contain an element of the center of a Sylow p -subgroup, is related to the cohomology of the group and to modular representation theory, in particular the relative projectivity of the Lefschetz module.

Kansas State University
maginnis@math.ksu.edu